Dear Cambridge Resident,

Happy New Year! I wish you and your family the best of health and hap

My new year had an exciting start with being sworn in as a city councilk staying in touch and listening to residents and businesses so I can best the reasons I entered the campaign — to make a difference in the way and to ensure persons of all ages, races, abilities, and income are cons

This newsletter is one way I intend to fulfill that promise. I will include r where I stand and why, and make you aware of issues important to you your feedback on a variety of policy issues. The first survey will be sent understanding of which issues are most important to you. While I can't use the information as my guide as topics come before the council, as t venues.

I am very excited to be serving my first term as a city councillor. You ca city business and at joan@joanpickett.org for other matters. Newsletter: always glad to meet with you and community groups to share informati

Best,

Joan Pickett

Council Business

The council's first act of business was to elect Councillor Denise Simmc Mayor. I look forward to working closely with them both. I have known Iv of the Mid-Cambridge Neighborhood Association. From my experience,
